Introduction to the National Pingtung University of Science and Technology

National Pingtung University of Science and Technology (NPUST) was founded in 1924 under the name of "Kaohsiung State Pingtung Extension School of Agriculture." Subsequently in 1928, this school was expanded and renamed "Kaohsiung State Pingtung Agricultural School". After Taiwan was liberated from Japanese colonial rule in August 1945, the school again changed her name to "Taiwan Provincial Pingtung Agricultural Vocational School of Agriculture." The school was then upgraded to "Taiwan Provincial Institute of Agriculture" in 1954, enabling a subsequent integration of this Institute with the Pingtung Agricultural Vocational High school in 1963. After this integration, the Institute went through a series of upgrades and name changes, including "Taiwan Provincial Pingtung Institute of Agriculture" in 1964, "National Pingtung Institute of Agriculture" in July 1981, "National Pingtung Polytechnic Institute" in July 1991, and then the "National Pingtung University of Science and Technology" in August 1997. Currently NPUST has a total of 27 departments and 33 graduate institutes offering Master's degrees and 8 Doctoral programs. These departments and graduate institutes are distributed among six colleges: agriculture, engineering, management, humanities and social sciences, Veterinary Medicine and international studies.

NPUST has the biggest Campus of all the universities in Taiwan (occupying nearly 300 hectares). With the largest and most beautiful campus in the nation, it has enjoyed the reputation of being a "National Park University" and features on "Tropical Agriculture". NPUST is home to many centers that can be found nowhere else in Taiwan. Such centers include the Pingtung Rescue Center for Endangered Wild Animals, the Working Dog Training School and Detector Dog Training Center, the Soil and Water Conservation Outdoor Classroom, Center for Active Natural Products Development, Asian Pacific Research Center for Tropical Agriculture, Innovation and Practical Training Center and Center for Agriculture and Aquaculture Product Inspection and Certification, which offers food safety services for all of Taiwan. NPUST is an excellent school that provides a comprehensive teaching and learning environment for our faculty and students.

NPUST's undergraduate school currently offers baccalaureate degrees to graduates of a four-year program. The four-year program admits students graduating from regular high schools and vocational high schools or their equivalents. NPUST has also established a continuing education programs to admit students for part-time study. NPUST's graduate school offers master and doctoral degrees in more than thirty disciplines that comprise the Colleges of Agriculture, Engineering, Management, as well as Humanities and Social Science. A candidate to a master's degree requires a bachelor's degree in a related field, whereas, the doctoral degree is offered to researchers and professionals with a master's degree from any university. Graduate programs at NPUST also provide the opportunity of part-time study during nights and weekends for those on-job students.

Moving towards becoming a specialized research university, NPUST actively pursues academic excellence and aspires to become one of the key academic bastions in the Asia-Pacific Region. In addition to offering lectures in Chinese, NPUST also offers courses taught in English in each Department. Especially, NPUST set up the Department of Tropical Agriculture and International Cooperation (DTAIC) in 1997 which is the first degree program taught in English in Taiwan. It offers baccalaureate, master and doctoral degrees to international students. Some of them receive scholarships from Taiwan government or are sponsored by others. In addition, the university also grants several sorts of scholarships to international students to further enhance the internationalization of campus. DTAIC offers wide range of disciplines such as agronomy, agribusiness management, animal science, aquaculture, food science, forestry, horticulture, plant medicine, veterinary medicine, rural planning, civil engineering, administrative management, information management, biomechatronic engineering, biotechnology, environmental science, vocational education and so on. Up through now, NPUST has recruited more than 40 countries from Asia, Africa, North America, Central and South America, Oceania and Europe. After graduation, these alumni perform and serve very well in their mother countries and some of them were appointed as ministers or equivalent positions in their government.

In positioning herself as one of the world's leading academic institutions, NPUST has established links with more than 120 world-renowned universities through various academic exchanges, distance education, faculty and students exchanges, sharing of resources, and joint research.

The three main educational goals of NPUST:

Spiritualization – Through education, and caring, NPUST's students are positively encouraged to develop a healthy and complete personality. NPUST's students are educated to become not only competent professionals but also worthy members of society with strong senses of civic responsibility.

Professionalization – Constantly aware of the needs of labor markets, NPUST trains students to possess solid abilities to work, to learn and to create or invent to meet the demands of labor markets. Students are encouraged to pursue careers in scientific or technological research and development or in business management so as to enhance the promotion of the industries of the nation.

Internationalization – In keeping with the trend of internationalization, NPUST's students are encouraged to acquire intellectual qualities enabling them to establish a strong foothold in the global community. The qualities to be acquired include improving language abilities, enhancing knowledge of international society, and understanding the development of international politics and economics. The ultimate goal is to enable students to become more competitive internationally.

MOT for teaching & POR for research:

In the past 5 years, academic research achievements at NPUST have been distinguished as being among the top 15 universities on the accumulated scores of impact factor weights based on the WOS journals in the fields of agriculture sciences and ecology and environment sciences. NPUST is also on the list of the top 15 universities in total publication numbers and citation frequencies in the fields of agriculture sciences, plant and animal sciences, immunology and microbiology, ecology and environment sciences, and earth sciences. These achievements are exceptional. Furthermore, NPUST has successively been granted funding for the promotion of teaching Excellence by the Ministry of Education for several years. NPUST has utilized this funding to devote itself to create an even better educational and learning environment, integration of theory with hands-on learning based on mission oriented teaching (MOT), and to continue to promote faculties' teaching quality and students' learning achievement, in order to cultivated talented person for the society and industry.

In order to characterize the feature of Tropical Agriculture and to make our faculty's research to meet the needs of industry and the market, the implementation of "product oriented research (POR)" is encouraged by university. NPUST is not only promoting basic research on campus, but also encouraging our faculty to be involved in industry-academia collaboration. NPUST has set up a number of specialized research centers at the university level or college level on campus, and established various technological service centers in academic departments and graduate institutes, in order to carry out a variety of services for industry-academia cooperation in the fields of medical agricultural biotechnology, ecosystem and disaster protection, information technology, cultural creativity, innovation management and green technology.

NPUST aims to move herself, a history that spans more than 87 years, into the top 100 Asian universities in the near future.

Guide on Dormitory and Off-Campus Living for Freshmen

1. Learning and Life-Experiencing camp for Freshmen:

- (1) Time: September 9th, 2013. Freshmen will be assembled in the department office, led by the counselors of each department to Shu-Yun Hall, and seated at 7:50 A.M.
- (2) Dressing code for the opening ceremony of counseling lecture: Attendants are expected to wear white short sleeve top with dark pants. Leather shoes or sneakers are preferred. Slippers and sandals are forbidden.
- (3) If you will be absent due to personal reasons, please contact the military training instructor, Zhuang Fu-Kui in the Life Guidance Section of the office of Student Affairs, calling 08-7703202 extension 6477, 7622 to ask for a leave.

2. Application for student dormitory:

- (1) The name list of International students' application of dormitory will be handed by the office of international affairs to the office of student affairs for processing altogether.
- (2) After the list of is ensured, related information will be released on the 'Campus News' in the front page of the NPUST and the 'Latest News' in the office of student affairs website at 5 P.M. on Friday August 23th, 2013.
- (3) Freshmen are allowed to move into the dormitory from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M. September 6th, 2013. Those who report later than September 8th, 2013 are considered to abandon their right of residence and their room will be allocated as backup.
- (4) The following electrical appliances are perm allowed in the dormitory: personal computer, case, monitor, speakers, printer, UPS, fans under 100W, recorder, table lamp, hair dryer, cell phone charger. One item of each appliance is admitted. Other electric equipment is prohibited. Pets are forbidden to be raised in the dormitory.
- (5) Please contact the military training instructor, Mr. Lan, or Miss Chao by calling 08-7703202 extension 6474, 6478 if you have any inquiry concerning dormitory.

3. In order to secure your safety and rights in terms of house rental, please rent houses with fire-extinguisher and supervisory system. For off-campus renting information, you may obtain information from the life guidance section in the office of student affairs on the website: <http://housing.nfu.edu.tw/?school=NPUST>

4. You should better be accompanied with relatives or close friends while meeting with landlords for rental matters. If you need to visit the rental houses alone, please tell your family members, and classmates the location and time you will be as well as your phone numbers for safety reason.

5. You should be aware of the exit and keep the door open if you need to check the rental house alone.
6. You should check the exit first, if the rental house is attached with metal-framed windows or other burglarproof installations,
7. Safety should be given priority over rent in the consideration of house rental. Parents should be informed of related information and obtain their consent prior to final decision. (It is better for parents to see the place in person.) During the process, you may ask teachers, military training instructors, or mates for companions or conferral if necessary.
8. Please pay special heed to terrace houses with extra attic rooms to see the soundness of safe protection facilities. Metal-frame doors, windows, one-way exit should be examined.
9. After settling in your accommodation, it is suggested to have phone numbers of your landlord, tutor, military training instructor, close friends or classmates for emergency contact.
10. Prior to signing a lease, be sure to read it cautiously to protect your rights. The lease term is better to be one semester. Relatively short lease could protect you from breaching the lease if you would want to terminate it due to unfavorable conditions.
11. Asking for invoices while making every payment as a proof.
12. Please contact the military training instructor, Mr. Pan, by calling 08-7703202 Ext. 6471 if you have any inquiry concerning off-campus living.

Guidelines on Course Registration

1. All students should enroll in classes online on the assigned “registration window”, which usually falls on the first week of the new semester. All students should have their student ID number and password number with them when enrolling on-line. Should a student wish to take overload semester hours, one must go to the Office of the University Registrar to seek for assistance, as well as students who take courses from both daytime department and continuing and extension education division.
2. Registration procedures: Register at NPUST Web Site (<http://www.npust.edu.tw>), click on “English” icon to get into the English webpage, and choose “Course Taking”. All students must finish the online “Teachers’ evaluation” on the previous semester before enrolling in classes.
3. Course Loads:
Undergraduates must select at least 12 credits at each semester from 1st year to 3rd year. Seniors must select at least 9 credits. No student may select more than 28 credits per semester. Seniors majoring in the Department of Veterinary Medicine must select at least 12 credits and at least 9 credits during the fifth year. Still, no student may register for more than 28 credits per semester.
4. For graduate students (both master’s degree seekers and PhD seekers), the course loads are assigned by each Department or Graduate Institute. However, the maximum number of credits allowed is 15 per semester, including undergraduate courses and educational courses. Graduate students who are in in-service program should at least take one course per semester and the maximum credits are 12.
5. You are allowed to register your general courses and PE class during only the time schedule for you by the school. Once you press the button to add a general course, your registration is successfully accepted.
6. All NPUST undergraduate students are required to take all required departmental courses, English courses, and English Listening courses, which will be registered by the Registrar’s Office, and students will see those courses reflected on their registration. However, all graduate students should select and enroll in all courses by themselves.
7. All international students, except students from the Department of Tropical Agriculture and International Cooperation, should pass a Mandarin Proficiency Test (see Appendix).
8. "Overload/Underload" approval must be obtained from the appropriate Academic Dean. All students receiving approval for "Overload/ Underload" from their Academic Dean must submit the approval to the Office of the University Registrar.
9. “Super Seniors”, students who have been attending NPUST for the fifth or sixth year should at least register for one course, or one will be ordered to drop out.

10. All students should be careful not to select courses that meet at the same time, or the credit hours will not be accepted.
11. Students should take the required courses with students in their own academic departmental class.
12. When taking a foreign language course (e.g. Japanese), students should be aware of the requirements on prerequisites. For instance, one who has not taken Japanese (1) cannot take Japanese (2) or (3).
13. Students should be aware that one will not be able to drop a course if the course reaches the minimum population required for a course to be offered in a semester.
14. To find out whether courses are counted as graduation points, students should consult with their own academic departments and centers. Before registering course, students are expected to understand all the registration guidelines designed by their academic departments and centers.
15. Students should view the online course schedule and the syllabus of different courses on Moodle in preparation for registering courses. (NPUST Home Website → Portal → Information → E-Learning Portal → Moodle)

Health Examination for freshmen

1. According to the Ministry of Education, the Student Health Examination Rules and the Student Health Examination and Disease Prevention Act of the NPUST Rules Governing Student Affairs, all freshmen must undergo a health examination.
2. Transfer students must also complete a health examination before enrolment and provide a completed health examination form to the university.
3. Options of Health Examinations (select one option from below to complete the freshmen health examination):

★★Option 1: In-house health examination

- i. Complete the personal information chart on the health examination form in advance. Please bring ID photographs (size: 3.5 cm width x 4.5 cm height) with your full name, student number and enrolled department written on the back of the photographs. The examination fee is NT$ 1,300 for new students (NT$1,050 for other foreign residents) and must be paid at the examination venue.
- ii. The health examination venue is at Shuyun Hall on the dates below. No further appointment required.

2013.09.12 (Thursday) and 2013.09.13 (Friday) from 12pm to 7pm

2013.09.14 (Saturday) from 9pm to 4pm

The health examination form cannot be taken away from the examination venue. The examination must be completed on the day. The form must be returned to the internal examination unit or the examination will be regarded incomplete. If you need help to lead you through the check stations, please contact a volunteer from Office of International Student Affairs, OISA (08-7703202, extension: 6426).

★★Option 2: Physical examinations at a hospital authorized by NPUST

The authorized hospital for Academic Year 2013-2014 is the PingTung Christian Hospital.

Address: No.60, Dalian Rd., Pingtung City, Pingtung County, Taiwan (R.O.C.)

Tel.: (08)7368686 ext: 2610-2613

Examination venue: Health Examination Center

Please complete the health examination by following the rules below.

- i. Examinations at the hospital will start on 17 September 2013.
 - ii. The NPUST health examination form must be brought to the hospital. The personal information section must be completed in advance. There is no requirement to retrieve the results from the hospital. The reports will be compiled and delivered by the hospital to NPUST.
 - iii. The examination fee for new students at the hospital is NT$1,350 (including an additional fee of 50NT) (NT$1,100 for other foreign residents).
4. If a new student fails to return the health examination forms before October 4th, 2013, his/her name will be publicized. Based on Article 4, Paragraph 6, Chapter 2 of the NPUST Student Health Examination and Disease Prevention, a minor demerit will be given to those who fail to turn in their forms after notification.
 5. If a student drops out school in Academic Year 2013-2014, a health examination must be re-taken in the re-entry year.
 6. New international students who have Rubella and Measles vaccine in their own countries in the past 3 months have to go through a health examination again. If the vaccine result from the 2nd examination comes back negative, he/she will need to be vaccinated again at the NPUST. The students should afford the vaccination cost (NT$1,000).
 7. Any queries regarding health examination, please contact Ms. Ming-Zen Chiou at (08)7703202 ext. 7610.

Traffic Safety

1. International students who have stayed in Taiwan for less than 1 year are not allowed to apply for a driving license. You may bring an international driver's license from your country.
2. International students holding a Taiwanese driving license, a motorcycle license, or vehicle insurances are obliged to hand in copies of these documents to their class tutor.
3. Covering 298 hectares, our campus is spacious and with broad roads; however, outside the campus, narrow roads and busy traffic usually lead to car accidents. Problems of surgical treatment, hospitalization, compensation, and hindrances come along afterwards to students' daily life and affect study. Up to 50% of freshmen have experienced a traffic accident because of unfamiliar environment, driving without a license, inexperienced riding, and riding without following traffic regulations.
4. To keep traffic order and safety, the traffic squad randomly places traffic enforcement on the following misdemeanors, including driving without a permit, driving in a reverse direction, parking abreast, loading three passengers on the motorcycle, violation of motorcycle helmet regulation, speeding, and illegal parking. This enforcement is carried under Article 5 of NPUST vehicle management regulation. Your vehicle will be chained when we find serious violation including parking at a parking lot reserved for the disabled, blocking drive ways, accessing to pedestrian precincts, repeated violation of parking, or other violations regarding parking without a permit, and irrelevant proof of a vehicle. In our campus, Shu-Yun Hall, Jian Kang Road, the east side of the swimming pool, and roads encircling Ching Szu Lake are all pedestrian precincts. Vehicle drivers are forbidden to enter this precinct. The violators' car wheels will be chained and locked. It is expected that lives and safety of college members could be secured.
5. You are advised to ride a bicycle or an electric bike to school. It is more environmentally friendly and healthy.
6. For a safe drive, driving without a license, drowsy driving, and drinking and driving are forbidden. Also, drivers should keep the speed under 40 Km/ hour.
7. Driving could be risky. You should have adequate sleep and schedule heedfully before traveling, returning back home, and join in every activity or ceremony; also, you should be cautious while driving or take public transportation instead. In this manner, you are ensured to travel safely and return home safe and sound.
8. You should be aware of the right of way while driving. You should yield the right of way before going in ways of other drivers. For instance, drivers making turns ought to yield the right to their straight-going counterparts. You can proceed when the green traffic light is on and stop when red light is on. Vehicles on branch roads shall also yield to those on the main roads. Failure to yield the right of way could lead to crashes, causing property loss, compensation for the vehicle damages and injuries, and civil or criminal charges. Furthermore, be sure to give signals before making turns and be careful about pedestrians and animals.

9. For safe drive, you, as a driver, ought to pay special attention to your physical conditions. Here are some signs that indicate you are not in a good condition for driving:

(1) blurred vision, missing or mistaking traffic information

(2) nodding, have difficulty keeping head up

(3) yawning, facial numbness

(4) have trouble focusing, poor judgement and reaction

(5) stiff body, slow movement

When you find you are with these problems, we suggest you to rest instead of going for long-haul driving. Drowsy driving should be avoided.

10. Please contact the military training instructor, Mr. Zhuang, at (08) 7703202 Ext. 6477 if you have any inquiry concerning traffic safety.

Appendix A: General Information

◆ Working Hours

State offices and most companies apply the Labor law to their institution. 5-working-day a week takes effect in full in 2001. Office hours are from Monday to Friday, 8:30am to 5:30 pm. Banks' opening hours are from Monday to Friday, 9 am to 3:30 pm, but there are some exceptions, which work longer hours. Department stores open from 11 am to 10 pm. Weekend opening hours are longer.

◆ Telephone

- ◆ Taiwan country code: 886
- ◆ Public phones need an IC Card, for either international or domestic calls. For international phone, dial 009 or 002, country area code and number. "Free Card" and (for certain countries) "Leader Card" are also commercially available to make international call as specified on each card. All those cards can be found in convenience store like 7-Eleven
- ◆ For domestic calls, local calls do not need the area code, other states calls do, before the number, example:
770-3202 a call to Pingtung
07-733-7060 a call to Kaohsiung
02-2657-1690 a call to Taipei
- ◆ All telephones at the university can only make calls within Pingtung area, and need to dial 0 before the number. Extension numbers from a telephone at the university do not need to dial 0.
0-770-3202 Calling to Pingtung city
6421 Calling from a Lab to DTAIC office
- ◆ Telephone area codes in Taiwan are as in the following table:

City	Code	City	Code
Changhua	47	Keelung	32
Chunan	36	Lotung	39
Chunghsing-Hsintsun	49	Ping Tung	8
Chungli	34	Taichung	4
Fengyuan	4	Tainan	6
Hsiaying	6	Taipei	2
Hualien	38	Taitung	89
Kaohsiung	7	Taoyuan	33

◆ Emergency Number

Emergency Call: 119
Police Station: 110

Neipu Police Station: 08-7796801
Longchan Police Station: 08-7701744

◆ Electricity and Water

Taiwan's mains are of alternative current, and have 110 volts. Tap water cannot be drunk raw. The water must first be boiled.

◆ Insurance & Health

International student who hold valid ARCs for over 4 months are eligible and required to join the NHI program. International student enrolled in credit courses shall apply for the NHI through their respective department or through the Office of International Affair when eligible.

NHI Medical Benefits: Students will be issued NHI IC Cards after joining the program. Holding the IC cards along with their ARCs will allow students to select medical services from NHI-affiliated hospital and clinics. Certain registration fees and co-payment may be charged.
